ABOUT US

SheWOKE UP

The She Woke Up Conference is a powerful two-day experience designed to awaken women to the fullness of who they are and the purpose they were created to walk in. Rooted in faith and focused on impact, this annual gathering equips women to stop sleeping on themselves and start dominating in the areas God has assigned them to — personally, professionally, and spiritually.

In 2024, women came to create. In 2025, they'll return to dominate. Themed 'She Woke Up Dominating,' this year's conference will empower women to confidently step into leadership, business, ministry, and motherhood with intentionality, strategy, and unshakable faith. Through dynamic keynote sessions, power-packed breakout workshops, and intimate networking spaces, attendees will leave equipped, encouraged, and ready to execute their God-given assignments.

This is more than an event — it's a movement of women rising together with vision, voice, and victory.

About the She Woke Up 2025 Conference

We're thrilled to invite you to become a She Woke Up 2025 Sponsorship Partner, an opportunity to align your brand with a bold movement that is awakening women to their purpose, power, and God-given potential.

The She Woke Up Conference is more than an event — it's a catalytic experience for faith-driven women from across the country. From visionaries and entrepreneurs to mothers, leaders, and creatives, these women are ready to wake up and dominate in every area of life.

But we can't do it alone. Your sponsorship helps us secure the venue, provide vital resources and supplies, offer nourishing meals, and create a life-changing, spirit-led experience for every woman in attendance.

When you say yes, you're not just supporting an event — you're sowing into purpose, potential, and generational impact.

HOW YOUR SPONSORSHIP WILL HELP

Your financial support goes far beyond logos and mentions — it helps bring this life-changing experience to life. Every sponsorship dollar plays a vital role in making this event excellent, accessible, and impactful. Funds will go toward:

- Venue & Technical Support: Providing a high-quality, comfortable, and empowering space for attendees to gather and connect
- Speaker & Workshop Facilitation: Hosting dynamic leaders, coaches, and panelists who pour into women with wisdom, strategy, and faith
- Meals & Refreshments: Ensuring attendees are physically nourished so they can be fully engaged
- Swag Bags & Conference Materials: Offering branded tools, journals, and goodies to enrich the experience and encourage continued growth
- Production & Marketing: Ensuring top-tier visuals, sound, video, signage, and digital promotions to reach more women with the message
- Scholarships & Accessibility: Making the experience possible for women who are ready to wake up, but may not have the means to attend

When you sow into She Woke Up 2025, you are partnering with purpose and playing a direct role in helping women rise up and walk in the fullness of their calling. Your partnership plants seeds that grow into legacy.
